

Sts. Cyril and Methodius Day—May 24th

Wednesday, May 24th is Sts. Cyril and Methodius' Day—a red letter feastday. We will have Great Vespers on the eve of the feast, Tuesday, at 5 p.m., with Divine Liturgy on Wednesday at 10 a.m.

About Sts. Cyril and Methodius

According to St. Nikolai Velimirovich's Prologue of Ohrid (Lives of Saints), they "were brothers from Thessalonica of distinguished and wealthy parents... The older brother Methodius spent ten years as an officer among the Macedonian Slavs and thus learned the Slavic language. After that Methodius withdrew to Mount Olympus and dedicated himself to the monastic life... It was here that Cyril (Constantine) later joined him..."

After great missionary activity and baptizing many Slavic peoples, "they returned to Constantinople where they compiled the Slavonic alphabet consisting of thirty-eight letters and proceeded to translate ecclesiastical books from Greek into Slavonic."

It was through their missionary efforts that our Slavic ancestors came to accept the true Christian faith and worship God in a language that they could understand, thus passing their love of Orthodoxy onto future generations.

Ascension—May 25th

On Thursday, May 25th, we will celebrate the Ascension of our Lord—one of the twelve great feasts of our Church. We will have Great Vespers on the eve of the feast, Wednesday, at 5 p.m., with Divine Liturgy at 10 a.m. on Thursday.

About the Ascension

Forty days after His rising from the dead, our Lord Jesus Christ appeared to His disciples telling them to preach, starting from Jerusalem, the good news of His Resurrection, the need for repentance for all, the forgiveness of sins and baptism in the name of the Holy Trinity. He also told them to stay in Jerusalem until they were clothed with power by the Holy Spirit Who would soon be sent. Then our Lord, from the Mount of Olives, ascended off the ground before His disciples' eyes into heaven to sit, with His body, at the right hand of God the Father for all eternity.

Memorial Day- Gary New Duluth Veterans Memorial, Parastos & Blessing of the Graves

On Monday, May 29th—American Memorial Day—there will be a ceremony at the Gary New Duluth Veterans Memorial (in front of Stowe school) honoring all veterans (from the Far West communities of Gary New Duluth, Riverside, Smithville, Morgan Park, Fond du Lac and Oliver) who sacrificed their lives in serving their country. Fr. Kristijan will be giving the opening and closing prayer. Mayor Emily Larson will be in attendance. The ceremony will start at 9 a.m.

Afterward, please join us at St. George's for a parastos in memory of all our deceased parishioners. At the conclusion of the church service we will then go to Oneota cemetery to bless individual graves. If one cannot make it to the church service, please contact Fr. Kristijan (218-576-4720) that Saturday morning to gauge what time he will be coming to Oneota.

New Credit Card Service at St. George's

St. George Church can now accept payments from credit card and electronic checks at the church or from your home. It's a convenient way to buy items from our bookstore, candle room and kitchen. One can also pay for dances, dinners-refreshments as well as fulfill pledges and make donations. Watch here for updates as we expand this service.
