Reflecting on the Meaning of the Battle of Kosovo-Vidovdan

(by Popadia Nancy Mirolovich)

When reflecting on the choice the angel of God offered [St. Lazar] when his nation was threatened by the Turks, Lazar prayed: "Dear God, what shall I do and how shall I? Which kingdom shall I choose? Shall I choose the earthly kingdom? Or shall I choose the heavenly kingdom? The earthly kingdom lasts only a brief time, but the heavenly kingdom always and forever."

Lazar and his soldiers received the Holy Mysteries [Communion] and entered into the struggle against the Turks, Lazar having chosen the heavenly kingdom.

In "The Tsar's Testament," Vladika [St.] Nikolai [Velimirovich] tells of the final hours of Saint Lazar's life. While the wounded tsar stood in Murat's camp, supported by Turkish officers, he reflected on his choice of the heavenly kingdom over the earthly. He questioned whether he had had the right to impose his decision on his people.

The appearance of an angel and the Holy Prophet Amos from the heavenly realm, which Lazar was blessed to behold, allayed his fears. The holy angel detailed to the dying Lazar the answers to his questions.

He explained...it was in order to save your people spiritually...that your state had to fall.

Reflecting on the Meaning cont'd.

And even the saints of Serbia themselves, with Saint Sava at their head, were praying and beseeching the All-seeing God to permit the fall of the temporal inheritance of their people, only so that the soul of their people might be saved from eternal death...The angel told the dying prince, "Through the honorable cross, golden freedom was revealed to men."

Glorification of New Serbian Saint in America

On July 14-16, 2017, there will be a glorification of a new Serbian saint in America—St. Mardarije (Mardarius) of Libertyville. It should be known that St. Mardarije was the one who consecrated our very own St. George Church in Duluth in 1923! This pan-Orthodox glorification in July—with the Patriarch, many visiting hierarchs and dignitaries from around the world—is a once-in-a-lifetime event. If you can, please consider making a pilgrimage to Libertyville, IL for this happy occasion.

Donations toward the Glorification

Our Church is currently collecting donations toward offsetting the costs of hosting the epic glorification of St. Mardarije in Libertyville. If God so moves your heart, please consider donating. Checks can be made payable to "St. Sava Monastery" and mailed to: St. Sava Monastery, St. Mardarije Glorification Committee, P.O. Box 519, Libertyville, IL 60048.

If you would like to be a special sponsor, please send your mailing and contact information to Fr. Krosnjar at 133 Johnson Ave., Libertyville, IL, 60048 or email him at frkrosnjar@gmail.com or text at 847-477-1531.
